Kynsilaukka Garlic Restaurant (22
Keskikirkko, tel: 09 651
9) A very charismatic place seasoned to local taste with a pinch of eccentricity. Kynsilaukka pays tribute to garlic in every guise, for those who can't live without garlic soup, garlic snails and garlic cocktails.
EXCLUSIVE Olo (44
Keskikirkko, tel: 09 665
5) Nominated Finnish restaurant of the year 2009, Olo specialises in top-quality Nordic cuisine. Signature dishes made with the best seasonal ingredients served up alongside perfectly matched wines from one of the best wine cellars in the city.

During summer you can also dine in style on the terrace.

AFTER DARK

LOW KEY Ateljee Bar (26 Yrjönkatu, tel: 020 123 4604) Perched on the top of the hotel Torni's tower, Ateljee Bar is a local institution.
Breathtaking views of the city combined with regular art exhibitions keep the place busy.

LATE & LIVELY Molly's Bar (1
Kaisaniemenkatu, tel: 09 5766 7500) For wall-to-wall fun and live bands, this is the place to be. Super-crowded any day of the week,
the happy atmosphere makes you feel like all of Helsinki is dancing on the tables with you.

THIS MONTH

SHOP The most famous market in Helsinki is located on the South Harbour at the end of Esplanade Park.
Stock up on souvenirs and local delicacies such as gooseberry jam.
GO At this time of year the Töölö area is home to Hietaranta city beach. Top up your summer experience by buying yourself some grillimakkara (a local seaside delicacy).

NO WAY!

Few people know that Swedish is also an official language of Finland – although it is only spoken by a teeny 5.4% of the population.

Boulevard) You'll find a very chilled atmosphere, comfy seating and a great view here. A wide range of drinks and snacks are available.

LATE & LIVELY Hed

Kandi Beach Bar (Hurghada Marina Boulevard) Billed as Egypt's most stylish superclub, this is a beach venue by day and a rocking club by night, thumping out serious tunes by international guest DJs.

SHOP Al Nol on the Abu Tig Marina has a fantastic selection of local fabrics and handicrafts. The cushion covers, light fittings, bags and accessories are all made using the bright colours and most atmospheric silks (tel: 016 883 3550).
GO August brings Ramadan, the month of fasting for Muslims.
People abstain from food and water between sunrise and sunset. It is a time of religious significance and non-Muslims should show respect. Join the locals who take to the streets every evening for a stroll.

UP TO €15 Monkey Bar (San Juan Highway, tel: 971 325 051)
Brainchild of Ibiza legend Vaughan, and famous foremost for being the long-time host of Pacha's Funky Room, the Monkey Bar is a wonderfully fun destination. It offers cheap but delicious toasted sandwiches and home-cooked favourites.

UP TO €30 Aura (Carretera Sant Joan 13.5km, tel: 971 325 356) Situated in the heart of the countryside to the north of the island, Aura offers a chilled-out atmosphere and tasty cuisine, created by chef Javier Massetani. Friday is a big night with Dantz – Ibiza's favourite DJs.

UP TO €50 La Paloma (156 San Lorenzo Apartado,
San Lorenzo, tel: 971 325 543) Beautifully decorated with white walls, baby-blue furniture and low-slung lampshades, this familyrun Italian restaurant cooks up a storm. The food is wonderful as is the service and the ambience. Their deli is also great, especially the home-baked bread.

EXCLUSIVE Es Torrent (Carretera Porroig-Sant Josep, tel: 971 802 160) This beautiful seafront destination is one of the finest beach restaurants in Ibiza. The menu is a delight for any fan of fish and seafood, and there's something on the wine list to complement
every dish.
